SUBJECT: Consulting Parties for the Site Summit Historic District's (HD) Management Strategy, Fort Richardson, Alaska (FRA)

Janeese Barnett
Cook Inlet Historical Society
121 West 7th Ave.
Anchorage, AK 99501

Dear Ms. Barnett:

The U.S. Army Garrison Alaska (USAG Alaska) has proposed a management strategy of selective retention for the Site Summit HD at FRA. This selective retention strategy includes the securing of certain buildings and structures, many of which are critical to the historical understanding of Site Summit. The strategy also includes the demolition of certain unused buildings and structures. USAG Alaska also initiated consultation under Section 106 with the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation (ACHP), the Alaska State Historic Preservation Officer, and other interested parties pursuant to the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA). Section 106 of the NHPA requires Federal agencies to consider the effects of their actions on historic properties, and provide the ACHP an opportunity to comment of Federal projects prior to implementation. USAG Alaska also conducted an analysis of this selective retention strategy as required by the National Environmental Policy Act, or NEPA. A copy of this analysis, an Environmental Assessment, is available at www.usarak.army.mil/conservation/NEPA_FRA.htm. USAG Alaska has preliminarily concluded that the proposed management strategy will not result in a significant adverse impact to the Site Summit HD.

In previous correspondence and meetings, your organization has been mentioned as a possible consulting party. If you are interested in becoming a consulting party for the Section 106 review of the management strategy affecting the Site Summit HD, please reply in writing, no later than February 25, 2008, to the Directorate of Public Works, USAG Alaska. In the letter or email, please identify whether you will be consulting on behalf of an individual or as a representative of an organization. USAG Alaska would like to meet with the representatives on March 11, 2008, at 10:00 a.m., at the Atwood Building, Suite 602, at 550 west 7th Avenue in Anchorage, Alaska. Prior to the meeting, those requesting to be consulting parties will receive additional information about the proposed management strategy.

For further explanation of consulting parties, and their role in this process, please reference the ACHP's Protecting Historic Properties: A Citizen's Guide to Section 106 Review available at <http://www.achp.gov/citizensguide.pdf>.

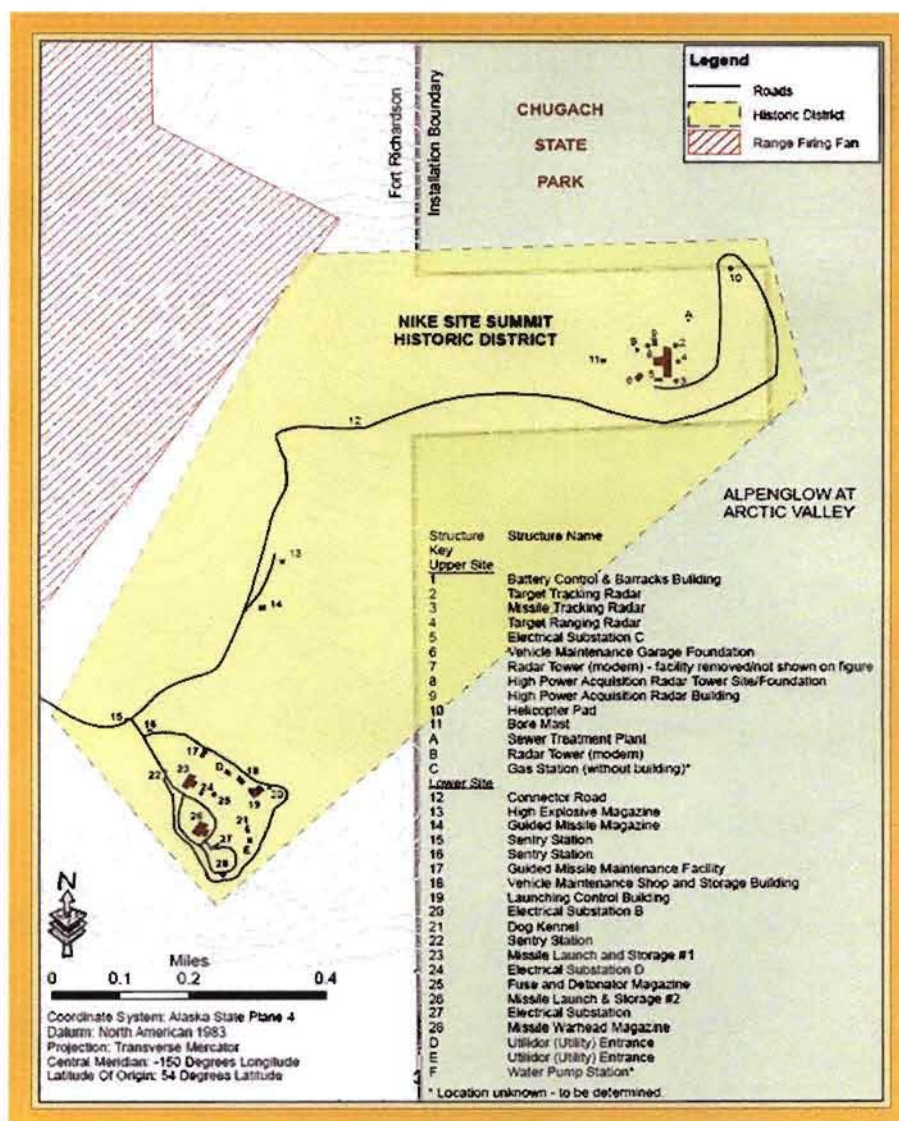

If you have any questions concerning the Site Summit Management Strategy, or the role of consulting parties, please contact Meg Thornton, USAG Alaska Cultural Resource Manager, at (907) 361-3002.

Sincerely,
